Teachers' Profiles

THE HEADMISTRESS:
MARGHERITA GIARDINA

I am the Headmistress of IIS LS Piccolo of Capo d'Orlando and I have been a teacher of English Language and Literature at this school for almost thirty years! I adore English and I love Scandinavian cultures and myths.

My aim is to give my school the highest cultural, moral and intellectual quality of studying and learning.

I am the chief of a big family and I will do my best to make everyone be as if at home everyday!

TULLIO RANDAZZO

I am a Teacher of Maths and Physics.

My goal is teaching my students the beauty of the Scientific knowledge and how it makes life more efficient.

I have a dream: to educate my sons and my students with the themes of Science.

I like reading poems.

I have a great friend: Karol Wojtyla.

GUIDO MORREALE

I am an engineer and teacher of Chemistry.

In my professional career I have also taught Construction, Technical Drawing, Topography, Maths and Physics.

I am deeply interested in Science and Technology and I like travelling and meeting new cultures.

I love dedicating my time to my family.

I avoid unfaithful people.

VALENTINA AGLIO

I am a teacher of English Language and Literature.

My mission is teaching my students that communication opens the mind and the heart to the world and that culture gives freedom.

I love travelling and discovering all the nuances of what I see.

In my free time I read, write and act in brilliant comedies.

My values are love, family and friendship, beyond time and space.

MARGHERITA CARUSO

I am a teacher of Maths.

I love teaching my students and seeing them learning and growing up.

In my free time I like listening to music and going out by bike.

I am particularly fond of sweets, even if I am not very good at cooking!

My satisfaction is helping the others overcome their difficulties and my motto is: “better to give than get”!

MASSIMO RAFFA

I am a teacher of Latin and Ancient Greek: it allows me to introduce my students to the beauty of the Greek and Roman perennial heritage.

I am also fond of opera and classical music.

I like swimming, jogging, walking in the woods and I enjoy travelling abroad, making new friends, and trying new foods and drinks: nothing beats an evening spent with lovely people over a pint of good ale.

My pet aversion? Boring people and platitudes.

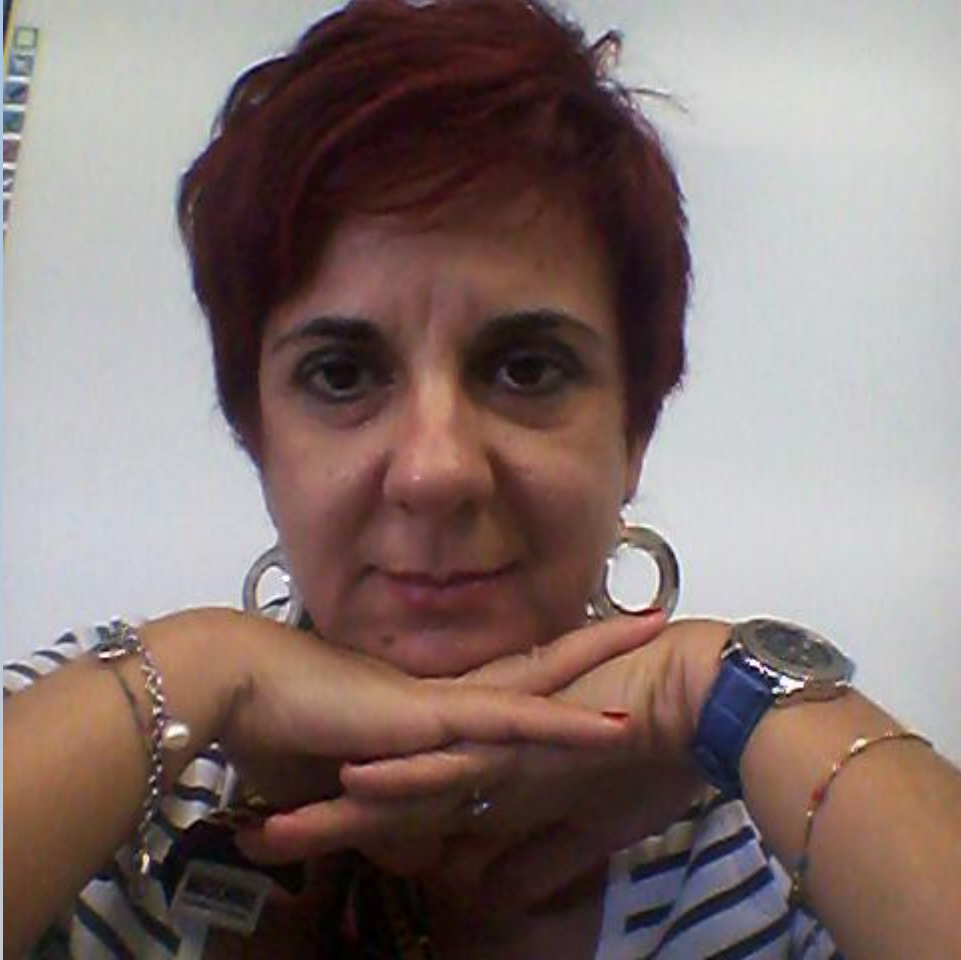

NUNZIATA FONTI

I am a teacher of Chemistry, Biology and Earth Sciences.

I love to walk along the beach and among the trees when the weather is good and sunny.

During my holidays, I love going to far countries because I can know people with different costumes and traditions or I can see landscapes that are completely different and new for me.

I've just one difficulty: I don't speak English!

MARIA PIA COCIVERA

I am a teacher of English Language and Literature.
I have got a nine-year-old daughter, Martina; she's all my life.

I adore teaching and I love my students.

I am a friendly person, keen on making friends; I like travelling, reading and watching movies, especially thrillers!

Gardening is my hobby...I always spend my energies with my plants, especially cactus! That makes me relax a lot!

ANNA MARIA BONTEMPO

I am a teacher of Science and Biology

I am an assistant teacher and I love dedicating my time to students and people in need.

I love reading, going to the cinema and to the theatre with my friends; I also like travelling and shopping! I relax walking along the beach because I adore the sea.

My passion is my family: my son and my husband!

I am sincere and friendly; I can't stand false and unfair people.

MICHELE SOTTILE

I am a teacher of English language and literature and I am also a translator.

My family is my life: I love being a husband and a father.

I also enjoy having lots of friends.

I adore summer and everything that goes with it!!

In my free time I really like travelling , doing sports and listening to music.

I hate: bullies, lazy people, injustice!
